THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT.

One of the Most Gratisfying Fruits of Gen. Harrison's Election.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 11.—One of the most gratifying fruits of General Harrison's election is the certainty that the Supreme Court will continue Republican. In the view of many public men the legislation growing out of the war is not so safely established that a court in which the majority was made up of State rights Democrats could be looked upon without misgivings. Fears of what might have been are now scattered. It would not be surprising if, during his four years' term, it would fall to President Harrison to name a majority of the members of the Supreme Court.

President Cleveland has had two vacancies to fill—Lamar to succeed Justice Woods and Fuller to succeed Chief Justice Waite. Of the Court as now made up Justices Bradley, Miller and Field have turned seventy. Justice Bradley is in his 75 year. When President Cleveland was inaugurated every one believed that either through the feebleness or death of Justice Bradley this would be the last vacancy he would be given an opportunity to fill. It has not proved so, and as far as outward appearance goes Justice Bradley is still good for several years' work. But his friends say that his retirement may be looked for during the first year of General Harrison's Administration.

Justice Miller is likely to stay on the bench longer. He is as vigorous as he was fifteen years ago, and still does more work than any single member of the Court. Since President Lincoln appointed him Justice Miller has had some disappointment. One of these, it is said, is an unfulfilled Presidential ambition. Whether this is true or not, it has never interfered with Justice Miller's reputation as a jurist. He is recognized as the great legal mind on the bench in the present generation, and his friends have felt that he should be enrolled with Jay and Marshall among the Chief Justices. When Salmon P. Chase died it was the hope of many that Associate Justice Miller would be placed at the head of the bench. But President Grant did not care to set a precedent of this kind, and the honor was conferred on Mr. Waite. Again, on the death of Chief Justice Waite an earnest effort was made to have President Cleveland take the new Chief Justice from the ranks of the associates. All the associates were hopeful that this would be done, and the bar of the country also wanted the precedent set. Of course Justice Miller was in everybody's mind. But President Cleveland was unwilling to make this new departure and Melville W. Fuller was chosen to preside over the Court. So Justice Miller's ambition will never be entirely gratified, but his fame as a jurist will not be the less.

Justice Field has brought upon himself the enmity of many Democrats by not resigning a year ago and making sure that his place should be taken by a Democrat. Now, if he were to resign for a purpose so purely political it is certain the Senate would not in the short time before the end of the present Congress confirm a successor. But Justice Field has no such intention. He comes from a long-lived family. Cyrus and David Dudley Field at his age would never have thought of retiring from active work. Justice Field expects to stay on the bench till 1892. Then, if a Democratic President be not chosen he will give up waiting and allow his place to be filled by a Republican.

Of the Justices who are under 70 the one who will probably be the first to give up his place is Stanley Matthews. Justice Matthews is only 64, but his health is so bad that it is doubtful if he ever again will take his place on the bench. Should he do so his friends fear that he will not be able to hold out more than one term of Court. His retirement is not thought of now, and he may continue on the bench until 1891, when he would be able to retire on half pay under the ten-year law. It is quite likely that his successor will be named by President Harrison.

Of the other Justices Lamar is 64. He looks older, and it is thought his services will not last many years. Blatchford is 68, but does not look 60. Within four years it is not likely he will be ready to throw off his judicial robes. The "boys" of the Court are Chief Justice Fuller and Associate Justices Gray and Harlan. They are on both sides of 55, and all of them expect to see several Presidents inaugurated.

A Washington special to the Post says that General Clark, Clerk of the House, has again abandoned all claim that the Democrats are certain to have a majority. He states that it will be necessary to await the official returns, and all that can now be said is that the result is in doubt.

BITTER WORDS FROM DANA.

His Last Editorial Before Sailing for Europe.

New York Sun (Dem.): Now, by a sudden and overwhelming catastrophe, amounting to a political revolution, the party of the people is driven simultaneously from the executive and legislative branches of the Government. Its last hold is gone. The power of initiative disappears with the power of veto. It can neither act nor prevent action. It cannot control organization, appoint committees, prevent the unjust exclusion of its own honestly elected members, prevent the unjust seating of Republicans not fairly elected to Congress, pass laws, amend bills, defeat bills, veto bills, check extravagance, punish dishonesty, dictate expenditure, arrange ways and means, or even reward its faithful servants with places of trust. It must stand powerless while the Republican party strengthens and perhaps perpetuates its own hold on power by erecting in Dakota and Washington Territory three new States and send six Republicans to the United States Senate, and to add in 1892 at least nine Electoral votes to the Republican column.

There has been a clean sweep. As to the executive departments, the Democrats are again the outs. As to Congress, the Democracy again becomes the opposition party. Its hands are tied for at least two years to come. Whatever is done, it can only record an unavailing protest. The Democracy is again at the foot of the ladder.

It is reported from Washington that Mr. Cleveland regards this result with tranquility. It is reported from Cincinnati that Congressman Mills is disappointed, but not discouraged.

But how do the masses of the Democratic party regard it? How do the men regard it who helped to lead and lift the Democracy out of the slough of despair and hopelessness fifteen years ago; who painfully, patiently, courageously exposed the shameless maladministration and resisted the outrageous aggressions of Grant and his cohort of plunderers; who battled with joy the first break of dawn in 1874, and from that time worked on with abiding faith in Democratic principles and growing hope in the establishment of the Democracy in power; who slowly built up Democratic majorities where the east had seemed high hopeless and redeemed State after State from the grip of the Republican rascals; who fought the long fight against untold corruption in company with Tilden and the San and Randall and Holman and a thousand other distinguished Democrats, who served the party when Mr. Cleveland was conducting executions in Buffalo and Mr. Mills' name was unknown outside of Cincinnati; who made victory possible in 1876, and when they were denied the fruits of victory went to work again with unshaken courage to win victory in 1880, and, if not in 1880, in 1884?

Are these Democrats disposed to view the unfolding of the work of fifteen years with the stolid calmness attributed to Mr. Cleveland, or to agree with Mr. Mills that free trade ought to have another chance? We think not. The Presidency was stolen by the Republicans in 1876. In 1888 it was thrown away, and by men calling themselves Democrats.

Well, let us all go to work again?

First Railway in China.

The first railway built in China has recently completed its first year's work. The line runs from Tongran to Yangchong, the distance being 29 miles. It was built for the coal trade of Kaiping. The nominal capital is 1,000,000 taels, but the paid up capital is only 250,000 taels, or $312,500. The earnings were sufficient to give a dividend of 6 per cent. on this capital. The freight carried included 170,600 tons coal, 81,500 tons brick, 2,000 tons lime and 15,600 pkgs merchandise. Gross receipts were about £13,000, leaving a profit of £4,900. There are those now living who will see an extensive railway system in China.

It is asserted by the Republicans that the Democrats are trying to steal the House by certifying men from the South. There is great anxiety on the part of the Republican members of the House. They say that their majority is being pared down by clever manipulation, and assiduously the Democrats are working to undermine it entirely. Mr. Quay, they say, foresees this danger, and it was on account of it that he came to Washington to take personal charge of Congressional matters. A good many anxious inquiries have been made at the Republican League headquarters, and to all who have asked him Mr. Quay responded that the Republicans are sure to organize the House. He admits that the Democrats are scheming the best they know how, but he has confidence in the ability of the Republican managers to take care of their interests.

A dispatch says that King, the aviator, will attempt to cross the Atlantic next Spring in a balloon, if he raises the necessary coin.

MRS. HARRISON AND MRS. MORTON.

Their Plans for the Winter and What They Will Do in Washington.

New York, Nov. 11th.—Mrs. Benjamin Harrison, the next mistress of the White House, will come to New York about the 1st of December. This will be in accordance with an accepted invitation extended several months ago by the widow of Ulysses S. Grant. These ladies are of long acquaintance. Mrs. Grant lately moved into the fine new residence of the Grant family in West End avenue. The establishment is just in complete order, and during the winter considerable hospitality will be extended to intimate friends, although not much in the way of extensive or elaborate entertainment. Mrs. Grant's daughter, Mrs. Nellie Sartoris, will soon be here, and the house will also contain for a time the two sons with their wives and children. Mrs. Harrison writes "Y" to a letter from Mrs. Grant last Summer asking her to come to the new house in December. The success or defeat of General Harrison was not a contingency in the matter, and it is expected that Mrs. Harrison will keep the engagement.

Mrs. Morton, wife of the Vice President-elect, says that she hopes to have Mrs. Harrison with her for awhile. Soon after the Republican nominations were made Mrs. Morton sent to Mrs. Harrison a life-size photograph of Mr. Morton and requested in return a like one of Mr. Harrison. The exchange of photographs was promptly completed. Visitors to the Harrison residence have seen the portrait of Mr. Morton on an easel in the parlor, where the numerous visiting politicians and others have observed it. The picture of Harrison which was sent to Mrs. Morton was a much smaller one, but from it has been made an excellent life-size drawing in crayon, which is placed conspicuously in the Morton residence at Rhinebeck. "I knew of the arrangement for a visit by her to Mrs. Grant, with whom I am myself intimate," Mrs. Morton said, "and I shall hasten to pay my respects to Mrs. Harrison as soon as practicable after her arrival. I shall then urge her to make a visit to me as protracted as she will."

The town residence of Levi P. Morton is at No. 85 Fifth avenue, only three doors from the building which has been occupied through the campaign as the National Republican headquarters. The family is still at their beautiful country residence at Rhinebeck, up the Hudson, but will come down to the city in about ten days.

"There will be two White Houses in Washington, during the four years of Harrison and Morton," said a person conversant with Mrs. Morton's characteristics. What was meant by that was that the lady has always been extremely hospitable and a positive power in New York fashionable society. Her husband's $20,000,000 makes him the wealthiest man who has ever been officially connected with a Washington Administration. While both he and his wife are far from ostentatious, and are decidedly approachable, Democratic sort of people, they do not count dollars when playing the host. If they do not set up and maintain an establishment in Washington, fairly rivaling the White House itself in the way of receptions, dinners, and other formal sociability, the expectations of their friends will be sadly disappointed. The daughters of Mrs. Morton will figure handsomely in the Washington household, that is certain. They are too young to be "in society," according to New York well usage, but that does not prevent them from taking part in the various festivities here, nor will it be any bar to their prominence at the Capital. The eldest, Edith, will be in her sixteenth year by the time the first Winter of the new Administration comes around, and that will be a sufficient age to warrant a "coming out" occasion for her. She is a pretty girl with many graces of manner and a fine education already well along towards completion. Miss Lena is only a year younger than that, and Miss Helen a year younger yet. Mrs. Morton's children came very near being annuals, for she had five in less than seven years.

One room in the Fifth Avenue residence of the Mortons will this year be decorated with the many curious campaign badges and other devices that were sent to Mr. Morton during the canvass. Some of them are comical, others are costly, and altogether they will make an odd exhibition.

VIRGINIA'S VOTE.

A Claim of Nearly Two Thousand Majority for Cleveland.

PETERSBURG, November 14.—Indications are that Virginia has given Cleveland a majority of nearly 2,000. The precincts yet to be heard from will alter the result but little.

John M. Langston, a defeated Republican candidate for Congress, will contest Venable's vote.

Treasurer Boyd will remain in his office this and Monday evenings, to accommodate those who desire to pay their taxes.

A GREAT YIELD OF CORN.

About Two Billion Bushels Grown in the United States This Year.

The returns of the yield of corn made to the Department of Agriculture indicate a yield per acre as large as that of 1885 and larger than any other crop since that of 1880. The aggregate grown on a larger area will exceed that of any previous American product, being close to 2,000,000,000 bushels, or about thirty-two bushels per capita, which has been exceeded in several previous years.

The corn surplus States' average yield is as follows: Ohio, 35.2 bushels; Indiana, 35; Illinois, 36.2; Iowa, 3; Missouri, 31; Kansas, 27; Nebraska, 36.

These seven States produce 64 per cent of the crop aggregate. The general average will fall somewhat under twenty-seven bushels. There is a good supply of maize in nearly all parts of the South, so that comparatively little will be required from the West. The yields of the Atlantic States are moderate—seriously reduced by the frost on the northern border.

After three years of low yields potatoes give an average of about eight bushels per acre, or nearly the rate of yield of 1879.

The averages of prominent potato growing States are as follows: Maine, 110 bushels; New York, 82; Pennsylvania, 82; Ohio, 80; Michigan, 75; Indiana, 75; Illinois, 80; Iowa, 90; Minnesota, 95; Dakota, 80; Nebraska, 80.

The yield has been increased in the South. It is high in the northern belt. The total product on the basis of these averages is about 195,000,000 bushels. The average yield of buckwheat is approximately 12 bushels per acre, and the crop nearly 11,000,000 bushels. The average for New York is 11 bushels; Pennsylvania, 14; Michigan 12.5; Indiana, 11.4; Illinois, 12; Wisconsin, 9.5; Minnesota, 11; Iowa, 10.8; Missouri, 10.7; Kansas, 9.5; Nebraska, 11.3.

Hay is a crop slightly above an average in yield, or 1.22 tons per acre. It has been nowhere seriously injured by drought. There is a strong tendency to increase of area in the South, and the yields upon cultivated areas rather than natural meadows are relatively large.

FORGOTTEN WEALTH.

Greenbacks Discovered in an Old Castaway Volume.

Paris, Ky., Nov. 15.—Great excitement exists here over the find of a large amount of money, some say as high as $18,000, in a book in Harry Long's junk shop by some colored men who were handling rags for him. It is known that one man had as high as $650, all of which were old greenbacks, issued in 1862, some of which were counterfeit, but most of them good. The Northern Agricultural and Bourbon Banks took in a good lot of it, all of which the cashiers pronounce good, but Cashier Northcott, of the Deposit Bank, refused a $10 note, which was a base counterfeit. Mr. Long, proprietor of the junk shop, recently bought a large number of old books at the sale of the effects of William Shaw, deceased, formerly proprietor of the Paris Flouring Mills, and a number elsewhere, so he does not know where the book with the money really came from.

CLEVELAND'S PLANS.

He Will Sell Oakview and Settle Down in New York.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—The President has told an intimate friend that he will dispose of the famous Oakview, arranging to give possession shortly after the 4th of March. Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland would then go to Europe and spend a year or more. On their return the President will practice law in the city of New York. Colonel Lincolnton refuses to say what he has decided upon, but does not deny the story that he will enter a large insurance firm in the Metropolis.

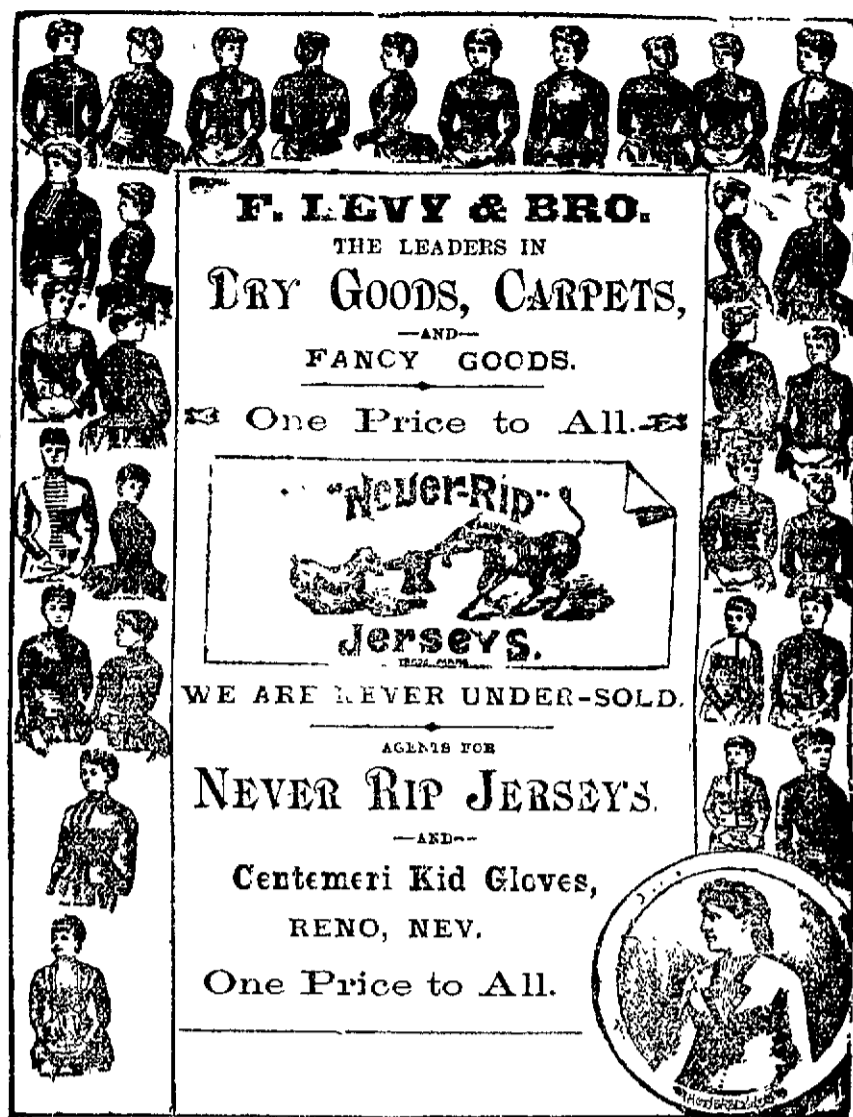

It is worthy of note in this connection to see how general and genuine is the sorrow over the departure of the young mistress of the White House. Mrs. Cleveland was a favorite with all who knew her, and she was widely known. She has been the recipient of a perfect shower of regrets at the political misfortune which will take her away from the national Capital.

Senator Quay, Chairman of the Republican National Committee, said to an Associated Press reporter yesterday afternoon that the Republicans would certainly have control of the next House of Representatives by a majority of five and their majority might be nine. There were several doubtful districts the result in which would determine whether their majority would be higher or lower than the figure given.

Hereafter the butcher shops will not be opened on Sundays. Meat eaters should govern themselves accordingly. W. B. Starbird, of the Sarsaparilla and Iron Bottling Works, of Stockton, Cal., was here yesterday looking after the interests of his company. The Carson Appeal says if all the parties get places in the Mint who expect positively to get there, it will require a much larger building to accommodate them. The Elko Senatorship is still a conundrum. The canvass of the vote shows a tie, but somehow or other the Commissioners of that county have determined to recount the ballots, and will do so to-day. ANOTHER PRECINCT HEARD FROM.—The Custom House officer at Tin Juana is fulfilling the Democratic portion of a novel Presidential wager. He agreed if Harrison was elected to carry in one of his pockets for thirty days a stone weighing about four pounds, and although the stone was only a four-pounder on the first day, it is understood to weigh now, according to the Custom House officer, about quadruple its original weight. If the officer could only get his meals at the Palace restaurant, in Reno, he would not notice the weight of the stone, except that it would seem light as a feather. IMPORTANT NOTICE.—I take the liberty to announce to the public and to my customers that we have moved to the large and spacious store of the Chamber's building, next door to M. Nathan's clothing store. Being very grateful for the liberal and generous patronage in our former establishment, we trust that our reputation for fair dealing will induce our customers to continue their confidence and transfer their kind patronage to our new establishment. Most respectfully,
S. EMERICH, Nevada Cash Store.

WILL CLOSE SUNDAY.—On and after tomorrow and until further notice, the undersigned butchers will not open their shops on Sunday, but will keep open later Saturday evenings for the accommodation of their customers:

JOHN FRASER,
W. S. BAILEY,

A WARNING.

The modes of death's approach are various, and statistics show conclusively that more persons die from diseases of the Throat and Lungs than any other. It is probable that everyone, without exception, receives vast numbers of Tubercle Germs into the system and where these germs fall upon suitable soil they start into life and develop, at first slowly and then by a slight tickling sensation in the throat and if allowed to continue their ravages they extend to the lungs producing Consumption and to the head, causing Catarrh. Now all this is dangerous and if allowed to proceed will in time cause death. At the onset you must act with promptness; allowing a cold to go without attention is dangerous and may cost you your life. As soon as you feel that something is wrong with your Throat, Lungs or Nose, obtain a bottle of Bochee's German Syrup. It will give you immediate relief.

HUMBOLDT ASSEMBLYMEN.

The Record Gives Blakelee One Majority.

The Silver State, of Wednesday, says: A recount of the votes for Assemblymen was made yesterday by the Board of Commissioners. The vote as canvassed originally stood: Snapp, 468; Organ, 425; Nelson, 443; Blakelee, 435; Harrison, 436; Rutherford, 434. A recount was demanded by Mr. Blakelee and it resulted in a gain of two for Blakelee; 2 for Rutherford, 5 for Organ, 1 for Harrison and a loss of two for Nelson, making the count stand: Snapp, 408; Organ, 431; Nelson, 442; Blakelee, 437; Harrison, 435; Rutherford, 436.

The same paper, of Thursday, says: The count for Assemblymen has assumed a new phase. It is alleged that the Inspectors and Judges of election in Little Humboldt precinct, as well as the majority of the voters, are residents of Elko county, and that one of them yesterday appeared before the Board of County Commissioners and had the taxes on his dwelling house and other property remitted for that reason. Should the precinct be thrown out, Joseph Organ, of Star Ranch, will be elected to the Assembly.

IMPORTANT TO OVERLAND PASSENGERS.

The lines popularly known as the Vanderbilt System of Railroads are the Michigan Central Railroad, the popular "Niagara Falls Route," by which passengers are afforded an unequalled opportunity of seeing the great cataract from Falls View Station, where all trains stop for ten minutes; the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway, the route of the famous steam-heated vestibule train, known as the "Chicago and New York Limited," with its buffet, smoking and library cars, with barber shop and bath room attached, its elegant dining cars and unequalled cuisine and luxurious sleeping cars, by which passengers are landed in New York City in twenty-five hours from Chicago; the famous "Bee Line," the popular route from St. Louis and Cincinnati; and the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad, the "Great Four Track Route." These lines are the great natural highways from Chicago and St. Louis to Cleveland, Detroit, Toledo, Buffalo and New York, and in connection with the Boston and Albany Railroad to Boston and New England points and are world-famous for their magnificent roadway, slight curvature, easy grades and luxurious accommodations. All passengers are landed at the Grand Central Station, situated in the heart of New York City, and are thus saved the delay and annoyance of ferry transfer incidental to other routes. For detailed information regarding rates, routes, sleeping-car accommodations, etc., call on or address H. W. Higgins, Agent Southern Pacific Co., Reno, Nev. or Wm. S. Baldwin, Pacific Coast Agent, No. 8 New Montgomery St., San Francisco.

SENATOR JONES TO HAVE A PLACE IN THE CABINET.

The Silver State says:

The Silver State is informed that Senator Jones, of this State, is to be called to a place in President Harrison's Cabinet as Secretary of the Treasury. It is to be hoped, for the interests of Nevada and the silver producing States and Territories generally, that the information will prove to be well founded. The Senator has the reputation of being a great financier and in the East is considered the greatest advocate of the double standard in the United States Senate. His speech in advocacy of the remonetization of silver pending the passage of the Standard Dollar Act gave him not only a national but a world-wide reputation, as it was the most comprehensive and exhaustive ever delivered in or out of Congress on the relations of silver to gold. As the President-elect is a western man, and it is to be hoped, not imbued with Wall Street ideas of monetary matters, it is probable that he may honor the Pacific Coast by giving Nevada's Silver Senator the Treasury portfolio, in which event it might reasonably be expected that should silver not be remonetized by making its coinage free at the Mints, the Treasury Department would do the next best thing for the debased metal by coining 4,000,000 standard dollars monthly—the maximum amount allowed by the existing law. General Harrison could not possibly select a more popular man for the head of the Treasury Department than Senator Jones. The choice would assure him of the cordial support of the Pacific Coast and of the Mississippi Valley and be a fitting token of his appreciation of one of the first and best friends silver ever had in the United States Senate since its demonetization in 1873.

In Love With His Wife.

"What can I do to regain my husband's love?" writes Mrs. Carrie R., of Toronto. She adds that seven years ago she was married under the most happy auspices, and until six months since, happiness crowned her domestic life; then her husband became distant in his manner toward her, until now he is positively cold. Mrs. R. gives no details, but if she is afflicted with diseases peculiar to women, if her cheeks have lost their bloom, and her eyes their sparkle, it may explain the cause of her complaint. In this event Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will effect a magical change and restore her to health. As a powerful, invigorating tonic, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription imparts strength to the whole system, and to the womb and its appendages, in particular. For overworked, "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated teachers, dressmakers, milliners, seamstresses, "shop-girls," housekeepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, "Favorite Prescription" is the greatest earthly boon, being unequalled as an appetizing and restorative tonic.

RENO

Reno's geographical position is excellent. It is on the line of the Central Pacific Railroad, only 154 miles from Sacramento, and 244 miles from San Francisco. It has two Flouring Mills, Planing Mills, three Nurseries, a Soap Factory, Reduction Works, and other industries. A great Woolen Mill and a Sash, Door, Blind and Box Factory, are about to be established.

NEW ORLEANS La.

I suffered with catarrh for many years and got so deaf that I went about my Museums, Circus and Theatre giving directions and doing business with a big ear-trumpet at the side of my head. It was very annoying to me and amusing to those who saw me. By the advice of physicians I sought the climate of the Sunny South. In six months I could see no change and was discouraged. At this time I began using Chalmer's English Catarrh Cure. In three months I felt a new man, in six months my hearing returned. I refused to give a testimonial at once for the English Catarrh Cure, as I feared it was not permanent. But a year and more has now passed, and I can now heartily indorse Chalmer's English Catarrh Cure for the cure of catarrh and deafness.
